

Even in the storm

When I'm weak You're strong

You are my shelter from the storm

You wipe away the tears of my face

And give my grace

You're there every time I need You

You'll catch me when I fall

This is my God,

I've waited for Him and He has saved me

He'll be glorified

Even in this storm

You hold my hand

And if it feels like I'm alone, You're still here

Right in my heart
